

PLACEMENT FEES and GUARANTEE PERIODS

Permanent Nanny/Domestic Placement

Should you be in need of a nanny, child minder or domestic worker, we have a portfolio of ladies that you can interview and choose to employ. For complete peace of mind reference checks are done on all of our nannies, our placement fee is only payable should you employ a candidate through us.

Choose from the options below to build your own placement package:

30 day guarantee - R2 000

60 day guarantee - R2 500

90 day guarantee - R2 800

The placement fee includes:

• Guarantee periods

- If you need to hire a new candidate in your chosen guarantee period, we will send more CV's to you and replace the candidate at no extra cost
- The department of labour rules still apply

• Training

- Baby and Toddler Care Course (for nanny placements) OR
- Home Care Course (for domestic placements)
- Training will either take place prior to the hiring of the candidate, or if she hasn't been trained yet, we will schedule her on our next available course date
- If the candidate has been on the training through Nannies in Training prior the placement, the course may not be replace by another course. It simply means that the training has already been done

Temporary/Part-Time Nanny or Domestic Placement

Should you be looking for a nanny or domestic worker on a temporary or part time basis, we will be able to assist.

The criteria for a temporary placement is:

- Less than three days a week OR
- Five days a week for a period of one to two months. If you wish to employ one of our candidates for longer than a two month period, our full placement fee applies.
